Priorities for cooperation: Addis Ababa Action Plan

“The international organizations that permanently accompany the efforts of our Conference play a fundamental role; from our Presidency we believe that it would be very pertinent that these organisms are articulated (...) so that from the RCM it is possible to deepen the efforts of the partners from the generation of a Joint Plan of Cooperation”

Liduvina Magarín, President Pro-Témpore of the RCM
San Pedro Sula, Honduras, nov. 2016

Priorities for cooperation: Addis Ababa Action Plan

- ❖ Increase cooperation in relation to access to earned benefits and their transferability, enhance the recognition of qualifications, education and skills obtained abroad, reduce hiring costs for migrants and combat unscrupulous employers.
- ❖ Implement effective social communication strategies on the contribution of migrants to sustainable development in all its dimensions, particularly in the countries of destination, in order to combat xenophobia, facilitate social integration and protect the human rights of migrants.
